

Jeni Taylor

Born and raised in Winnipeg, MB, Jeni Taylor began her music studies in middle school. She went on to study trumpet performance at the University of Manitoba, earning a Bachelor of Music degree. She also holds a Master of Music degree in trumpet performance from the University of Nebraska at Lincoln, where she was a Graduate Teaching Assistant in jazz and brass, teaching large jazz ensemble and trumpet lessons. Her main teachers have included Dr. Richard Gillis, Lisa Norris, Dr. Darryl White, and NY freelance player and teacher Laurie Frink.

Currently, Ms. Taylor is an educational assistant in performing arts at Andrew Mynarski, VC School and Vincent Massey Collegiate in Winnipeg. She maintains a large private teaching studio, as well as doing many trumpet and brass clinics at schools throughout Manitoba. She also continues a busy performance schedule as a regular member of the Winnipeg Wind Ensemble, the East Side Jazz Band, and the Muddy Waters Brass Quintet.
