

Jonathan Alexiuk was born and raised in Winnipeg, MB. After graduating from John Taylor Collegiate, he began performing in Winnipeg and Kenora, and soon after on Princess Cruise Lines. He joined the Air Command Band in 2004, and remained there as pianist, trombonist and arranger until 2007. Jonathan has performed and recorded as a pianist, trumpeter, saxophonist, trombonist, drummer, and is a largely self-taught arranger.

His charts have been played by the Ron Paley Big Band, the Winnipeg Jazz Orchestra, the Memory Lane Orchestra, Those Guys, numerous vocal groups, and the Air Command Band. His own groups which he performs for and arranges with- Conga Jim, Johnny Pancreas and the Diabetics, and 200 Aces- perform regularly around Winnipeg. He has also performed and recorded with the performers listed below:

- Kelly Robinson- My Foolish Heart (pianist)
- Mike Petkau- Don't Say A Word (arranger on 1 track)
- Big Sap and the Sugar Shack- Same But Different (piano, sax, trumpet, accordion, guitar, percussion, vocals, arranger)
- Jodie Borle- Snow (piano, vocals, arranger)
- Jaylene Johnson- Wish (piano and arrangements on 'Winter Wish' and 'It Could Happen To You')
- Twilight Hotel- Bethune (piano, trumpet, trombone, saxophone, euphonium)
- Dave Quanbury (of Twilight Hotel)- No Vacancy (trumpet, euphonium, clarinet)
- Various artists- Record of the Week Club (piano, trumpet, saxophone, and co-arranger on 'Steamed Chilis') <http://www.manitobamusic.com/play.php?ac=0000000739>
- Marcel Desilets- There's a Story To Tell (trumpet and saxophone)
- Helen White- Midnight Sun (piano, trumpet, sax)
- Neil Keep- Mr. E & The Jazz Gumshoes (piano, trumpet, sax, trombone)
- Monika Loewen Wall- TBA (piano, arrangements)