

Ann Germani is a professionally trained musician and teacher; holding scholarship with the Banff School of Fine Arts, Trinity College of Music, London, England, and a Masters degree from Brandon University.

She performs for many community concerts and events, and plays second harp with The Winnipeg Symphony Orchestra. As part of the “Artists in Healthcare Manitoba” program, Ann regularly plays harp in the acute care areas for the Brandon Regional Healthcare Authority.

Ann operates a private music teaching studio and performance venue in “Old Montreal Place” the Old Bank of Montreal building in downtown Brandon, and is currently President of The Brandon & Westman Registered Music Teachers’ Association.