

Andrew Erickson is a classroom guitar teacher in Winnipeg, MB. He teaches guitar and jazz guitar at Glenlawn Collegiate in the Louis Riel School Division. The guitar jazz guitar programs at Glenlawn boast 100 students combined.

Andrew is a regular performer throughout Manitoba. He has performed recitals on numerous occasions for the Winnipeg Classical Guitar Society, Women's Musical Club and other organizations. He most recently completed a cross-Manitoba tour this past year through Home Routes, performing at house concerts throughout rural Manitoba.

Andrew has been studying guitar for 16 years and is well-versed in many styles of music, but prefers to specialize in classical. Andrew lives with his wife and accomplished accompanist/piano teacher Katie.