

Natalie is a graduate of NDSU's theatre department (2007), and holds an additional degree from NDSU in music (2010). She has worked professionally as an accompanist and music director since the age of 17, including at an equity theater in New Hampshire, and regionally in Kansas and North Dakota. She lived in Tahiti for a year, where she worked as a baker and studied traditional Polynesian dance. She recently moved back to Fargo with her husband and two cats.
