

LOREN HIEBERT

Loren Hiebert grew up in rural Saskatchewan, Kansas, and Manitoba. His early musical influences were hymn-singing and southern gospel music.

Since 1980, Loren has been a music teacher in the Altona/Morden/Winkler area, with a large and active studio. Loren has adjudicated in music festivals across Manitoba and western Ontario. He is a member of the International Music Camp piano faculty.

Loren has collaborated with many different individuals and groups, including violinist Rosemary Siemens, the Faith and Life Male Choir and Canzona. He is active as a chamber musician in various other classical and jazz combinations.

Loren and his wife Lori live in Altona.
