

Peggy Bartunek lives in Grafton where she is retired from teaching vocal music and directing musical theatre. She is an accompanist for the Musical Theatre program at International Music Camp; an adjudicator for ND and MN small and large group festivals; a guest conductor, and is a church organist. Peggy is President-Elect of North Dakota ACDA (North Dakota American Choral Directors Association). She plays keyboard and sings jazz standards with the Sneaky Wild Oats and is the Rodgers organ representative for ND, SD and northwest MN.