

Catherine Tlusty is completing a Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Voice Performance at North Dakota State University. As a graduate assistant at NDSU, she teaches Applied Voice, Vocal Pedagogy, and Music Theory. Prior to moving to Fargo, Catherine earned a Master of Music degree in Vocal Pedagogy from the University of North Dakota and then joined the voice faculty as an Instructor of Voice. She received a Bachelor of Music degree in Music Education/Voice from Westminster Choir College. Catherine has over 25 years of experience teaching singers of all ages and has worked with singers in a variety of genres including classical, musical theater, pop, rock, folk, and jazz. She lives in Fargo with her daughter, Elisabeth, and her puppy, Blanche.