

Tulsa Lundberg
Band Instrument Repair Technician

Tulsa Lundberg is a band instrument repair technician from Killdeer, ND and is a recent graduate from the Band Instrument Repair program at MSC Southeast in Red Wing, MN. She also holds a horn performance degree from Minot State University. Throughout both of her degrees, she played in many ensembles such as the Minot Symphony Orchestra, Minot Community Concert Band and the Hastings Community Band. She looks to continue playing as she begins her career as a repair technician in Fargo, ND with Eckroth Music. When Tulsa is not playing music she enjoys reading, running and dreaming of her future dog.
