

Peggy Dahl-Bartunek lives in Minneapolis where she is retired from teaching vocal music and directing musical theatre. She is an accompanist for the Musical Theatre program at International Music Camp; vocal and keyboard performer of jazz standards, and is a substitute pianist and organist for many churches in the Twin Cities. Peggy is the Rodgers organ representative for ND, SD and northwest MN.

