

Evan Meiers has been a North Dakota music educator since 2009. He has recently taken a position with Minot Public Schools where he teaches beginning band and second year band. He is at the helm of 6 schools in Minot, North Dakota. He has taught band at all levels including; high school, middle school, and beginning band. He also is well versed in Choral Methods and Conducting. Meiers has also held teaching positions in Lignite and Stanley, North Dakota.

As a hometown North Dakota boy, Meiers graduated in 2009 with his undergraduate degree (Bachelor of Science degree in K-12 Music Education) from Minot State University in Minot, North Dakota, where he won the Minot State University Senior Honors Competition. Meiers also received a master's degree (music education) from the University of North Dakota.

Mr. Meiers is an active performer in the percussive arts. He enjoys playing in the ever adept and popular Minot Community Band. Meiers also is an active adjudicator and clinician. He is a member of the North Dakota National Bandmasters Association, North Dakota Music Educators Association, Minot Educators Association and the Percussive Arts Society. Recently, Meiers has been given the nod to become an Active Member of the Phi Beta Mu International School Bandmaster Fraternity.

In 2014 Meiers had the privilege of his high school band being selected as the 2014-2015 North Dakota Governors Band. He was also selected by his peers to serve on the North Dakota High School Activities Music Advisory Board from 2012-2018. With staggering numbers and enthusiasm his students and ensembles have achieved great success in festivals and competitions.

Recently Meiers has resurrected the ever-popular Magi Drumline in Minot, ND. This drum line is a volunteer drum line that includes any Minot band student that is enrolled in 7-12 grade. His passion for marching band and creating pep-band arrangements can be seen on many videos and pictures across the world wide web.

Mr. Meiers also farms with his family in Blaisdell, ND. His wife is a CPA in Minot, ND and they have 2 daughters ages 1 & 3 (going on 16).