

World Percussion

International Music Camp

Instruments will be provided, however please feel free to bring any personal congas, djembes, frame drums or steelpans you may want to use

Please bring your own ear plugs if you want them.

Please bring pants (no skirts) for the performance dress. Because you will play a number of different instruments in different postures, mobility is essential!