

Jennifer Parker

Jennifer Parker enjoys many forms of Art. Her preferred medium is pencil/colored pencil, but loves to paint in acrylics and pastels. Lately she took welding classes to pursue metal sculpture.

She recently stepped out from being Executive Director at NCAC (Nelson County Arts Council) in Pekin, ND to pursue her own art career in full. She has served as Executive Director, a volunteer, a board member, an Art for Life Artist, an art camp instructor, and a play director and set designer/painter. Jennifer also enjoys commissioned work such as murals.

Parker received her AA in Commercial/Visual Arts in Moorhead, MN and continued visual arts in Tempe, AZ.

Jennifer resides in her hometown of Tolna, ND with her husband Jason and son Caleb.
