

JANE LINDE CAPISTRAN, conductor and violinist, recently retired as Assistant Professor of Music at Concordia College in Moorhead, Minnesota. In addition to conducting the Concordia College Symphonia, Capistran taught studio violin and viola, string pedagogy/methods, music appreciation and was the Faculty Advisor to the Collegiate American String Teachers Association. She currently is the Associate Conductor and Principal Second Violin of the Fargo Moorhead Symphony, and performs in the Lyra Trio and Dakota Rose String Quartet. In addition, Capistran will begin her 17th season as Conductor of the Fargo Moorhead Area Senior High Youth Symphony. Capistran also serves as a guest conductor and clinician for string festivals and workshops in the upper Midwest.