

J’Kobe Wallace (he/him/his), from Minot, North Dakota, is a trained educator and enthusiast of all things music and theatre. While earning a degree in Music Education, he served as president of the student chapter of the National Association for Music Education (NAfME) and assistant directed the Western Plains Children’s Choir. After graduating, J’Kobe toured with his collegiate choir and sang through various cities in Norway. With extensive training in voice, J’Kobe has crafted a career as a musical theatre performer. He had the opportunity to perform with various companies in productions such as The Little Mermaid, Newsies, and The Medora Musical. Most recently, he assumed the role of Caleb, one of two live vocalists and hosts for the touring company of Feld Entertainment’s production of Sesame Street Live! Let’s Party. When he’s not teaching or performing, J’Kobe likes to cook new recipes, watch Steven Universe, play with his puppy, and listen to Beyoncé! He currently resides in Manhattan.
