

Casey Paradies is a free-lance theatre artist. He is a graduate of the American Musical and Dramatic Academy in NYC and holds a BA and MA in theatre from UND. This past May he earned his MFA in theatre direction with an emphasis in movement from USD. As a performer Casey was a featured dancer in Up With People's Roads and danced across the USA and six countries in Europe. He has played many dream roles including Will Parker in Oklahoma! and the Emcee in Cabaret. As a director/choreographer his productions have won accolades both locally and through the Kennedy Center's American College Theatre Festival. He recently won accolades for his adaptation and translation of the Medieval Mystery Plays. Past directing and choreography credits include, Mary Poppins, The Drowsy Chaperone, Fiddler on the Roof, and Triumph of Love. He is a proud member of Stage Directors and Choreographers society and a certified actor combatant from Dueling Arts International.