

After teaching at IMC for two years, Natalie McComas is excited to head up the musical theater faculty this summer. She holds degrees from NDSU in both Theater Arts ('07) and Music ('10). She has worked professionally as a music director and accompanist since the age of 17, while still performing on stage as well. She has worked nationally at Equity theaters in New Hampshire and Minnesota, and internationally in Guatemala, where she music directed Mary Poppins and Legally Blonde. As a professional freelancer, Natalie is also a plus-size model that has been featured in regional tv and print advertisements.
