

Shelby Huston has been an active fiddle player for over 12 years. She started her musical journey under the direction of accomplished fiddler and educator, Jim Tengesdal. Through his instruction, she gained a passion for performing and educating. She is an orchestra teacher in West Fargo, ND enjoying her first year of teaching after graduating with a Bachelor of Music in Music Education degree from Concordia College, Moorhead MN. She is an active member of the Fargo Moorhead Symphony Orchestra and teaches violin students in her spare time. Shelby is a competitive old-time fiddle player with many accomplishments. From winning the International Peace Gardens Old-Time Fiddle Contest Championship three times to winning the Minnesota State Old-Time Fiddle Championship and winning several contests in between, Shelby has proven herself as a fiddler. She has performed her fiddle music at the Norsk Hostfest for five years, one of which including a performance alongside the musicians and comedians, Williams and Ree. She performs her fiddle music at banquets, events, weddings, and on live television. Shelby volunteers her music at her church and volunteers playing her fiddle music, including country/bluegrass as well as old-time fiddling, at nursing homes in North Dakota.
