

World Percussion

International Music Camp

Instruments will be provided, however please feel free to bring any personal congas, djembes, frame drums or steelpans you may want to use.

Please bring your own ear plugs if you want them.

Please bring comfortable black or dark blue pants (no skirts), a white shirt, and black shoes for the performance dress. You will play a number of different instruments in different postures, and mobility is essential!