

Devon Gillingham is a multi-instrumentalist, songwriter and writer originally from Winnipeg. A graduate of The New School for Jazz and Contemporary Music, Devon has studied with Ron Carter, Kirk Nurock, Harish Raghavan, and Becca Stevens, among others. His first EP of original music, entitled "December", was released this past winter. His debut full length record, "Maplewood", was released in 2022, with support from the Canada council for the arts.