

Shari Boschee-Bio

Ms. Boschee is a beginning band specialist and currently teaches in the Grand Forks Public School District. She is also a flute specialist and was the flute instructor at the University of North Dakota until 2016. Ms. Boschee held the position of third flute/piccolo for the Fargo Moorhead Symphony Orchestra until 2015. In addition to her job in the school district, she is a freelance performer and teacher in Grand Forks, ND and the surrounding area. She has performed with the UND Chamber Players and the Boschee/Anvinson flute and guitar duo. Ms. Boschee has also served as principal flutist for the Greater Grand Forks Symphony Orchestra. She holds bachelors and masters degrees in music education from the University of North Dakota. Previous positions include teaching in the East Grand Forks private and public schools and at North Dakota State and Valley City State Universities. Ms. Boschee is an active adjudicator and has served as a flute instructor at the International Music Camp.