

Ben Kensok is a jazz saxophonist, dedicated educator, and a proud alumnus of the International Music Camp. Currently pursuing a bachelor's degree in music education at Brandon University, Ben has returned as a faculty member to Session 5. Originally from West Fargo, ND, he found his passion for jazz after discovering iconic jazz musicians like Lester Young, John Coltrane, and Billie Holiday. Ben has actively engaged in the musical community at Brandon University, seizing every opportunity to expand his knowledge and skills. He is a four-time member of the Brandon University Big Band and is often found playing gigs around Manitoba with local musicians. Recently, he successfully completed his field experience at Vincent Massey Collegiate in Winnipeg, solidifying his passion for music education. Today, as both an International Music Camp alumnus and faculty member, Ben is thrilled to provide students with the opportunity to grow and explore the world of jazz.
