

Janelle Huber is a band director in Grand Forks, North Dakota. She received her Bachelor of Music Education degree from Indiana State University and her Master of Music Education degree from North Dakota State University. She teaches band at Red River High School and 5th grade beginning band at Kelly, Viking, and Winship Elementary Schools. She is the director of the Grand Forks City Band and performs flute and piccolo in regional ensembles including the Minot Symphony Orchestra and a woodwind quintet called the Boreal Winds. She has a small flute studio of which she is very proud. Her hobbies include knitting and running great lengths.