

INTERNATIONAL MUSIC CAMP DRAMA WORKSHOP

The list of suggested materials for Drama camp is divided into two categories. The first category deals with clothes and items you will need for daily rehearsals and workshops. The second category presents guidelines for your performance costume. Be creative, but there is no need to spend a large amount of money for anything on this list!

Rehearsal List (everyday)

Clothes that allow for movement and action

- Sweatpants, leotards, loose fitting clothes
- Sneakers or dance shoes.
- A notebook or journal and pencils and pens for writing activities.
- Refillable water bottle

PLEASE NOTE: You will need to bring shoes that you can move well in for rehearsals, workshops, and performances.

Please, no flip-flops, boots, crocs, or heels.

Performance List

Express Yourself!!

If you have a monologue you would like to develop further, perhaps to become a part of our final performance, bring that with you to camp.

Put together a colorful outfit that expresses who you are and what you believe in. Think tasteful and unique, but nothing that may interfere with your activities and movement.

Shorts/pants/skirts are fine, but remember you will be moving around.

*You do not want to have to keep adjusting your clothing as you perform. Please no low-cut jeans or pants, or excessively revealing clothing. Wear garments that won't make you self-conscious about what people might accidentally see!

Make sure your clothing choices fit into the camp dress code listed in your Yes! I'm Going! flyer.

We are truly looking forward to meeting you, working with you, and directing you during our week together at IMC!

Our Drama filled week is sure to be an exceptionally enjoyable, challenging, and exciting experience for everyone involved!

The final performance is on Saturday at 2:00 pm. Friends and Family are all welcome to attend!

Drama Directors: Kevin R. Neuharth, Chris Stroschein, Katie Langemo
