

Baritone Alex Ritchie is a doctoral student at the University of Minnesota serving as the teaching assistant for UMN Opera Theatre, where he recently appeared as Nardo in Mozart's La finta giardiniera. He has performed throughout the Twin Cities with Minnesota Opera, Mill City Summer Opera, Skylark Opera, An Opera Theatre, and the Saint Cloud Symphony Orchestra. With Minnesota Opera, Mr. Ritchie was most recently seen as First Scottish Soldier in the revival of the Pulitzer-Prize-winning Silent Night. In 2023, Mr. Ritchie performed The Count in Mozart's Le nozze di Figaro for the inaugural season of Tampa's Sunnyside Opera. Concert appearances include Brahms's Ein deutsches Requiem and Fauré's Requiem. Mr. Ritchie teaches voice at K&S Conservatory in Woodbury, Minnesota. He received his M.M. from the University of Missouri–Kansas City Conservatory of Music and Dance and his B.A. from Harding University. He lives in Lakeland, Minnesota, with his wife and three children.