

Andrew Erickson has been teaching guitar in Winnipeg, Manitoba for over a decade. He runs junior high and high school classroom guitar programs in the Louis Riel School Division. Andrew also teaches a high school electric guitar ensemble during the lunch hours. His students have performed at the Winnipeg Music Festival and Brandon Jazz Festival. Andrew serves as president of the Manitoba Classroom Guitar Association, an advocate for classroom guitar programs in public schools. This is Andrew's 6th year on staff with IMC.