

IMC 2024 bio adult men's BBS - Marlaine Stevens

Marlaine was a founding member of the Assiniboine Chorus and acted as Assistant Director for several decades. During that time, she mentored two directors in leading women's barbershop singing. She ultimately directed the Chorus for 6 years.

Marlaine has directed The Happy Homesteaders men's barbershop chorus since 2000, as well as coaching barbershop quartets and choruses, and conducting barbershop music schools.

She has sung in several barbershop quartets and currently sings with nStyle quartet. She's also a founding and current member of True Harmony, a self-directed 12-member women's a cappella group.

Her other musical interests include playing flute in Intermediate New Horizons Band and keyboard in Jazz New Horizons Band, as well as composing and arranging. She attended the University of Alberta and sang with the UA Mixed Choir for two years, including participation in their "In Memoriam" album.

This is her 2nd year on the faculty at the International Music Camp for the Adult Session and she looks forward to once again sharing the joy of singing barbershop harmony.
