

MAX JOHNS SHORT BIO

Max Johns is a musician who lives and works in Minneapolis, MN. A journeyman bassist with broad tastes and professional experience, Max can be heard with jazz groups, dance bands, and underground musicians across the midwest. Max's focus as a composer and bandleader centers on improvised music; his most recent album is Laid Across Your Path (2021). Max's long-running Allweather quintet is set to release a new studio album in 2025.

For more information, please visit maxjohns.com.