

FIDDLE CONTEST

JUNE 7, 2025

Now in its 48th year, the INTERNATIONAL OLD TIME FIDDLERS CONTEST draws fiddlers from both sides of the border to compete in categories ranging from Small Fry to Seniors. Some of the best fiddlers around the region will compete for cash prizes and trophies, plus the title of overall champion. Whether you come as a fiddler on stage or listener in the audience, you are sure to enjoy this day of great old-time music. Cash prizes totaling $2,000 and trophies will be awarded.

WHO MAY COMPETE: The International Old Time Fiddlers Contest is open to contestants from all states and provinces. All contestants must enter in their age-specific groups. See Contest Rules for more information.

FEES: $25 USD entry fee for International Old Time Fiddle Contest participants. Small Fry and Junior-Junior contestants, and those registered for the Fiddle and Guitar Workshops on Thursday and Friday are exempt from the $25 fee. Entry fee can be sent in advance or paid upon arrival for the Contest. Contest admission for audience members is $12 USD for the entire day.

LOCATION: International Music Camp at the International Peace Garden.

INTERNATIONAL PEACE GARDEN: All events at the International Music Camp are subject to the International Peace Garden Gate Fee. 2025 admission is either $10 per person\per day, or $50 for a family annual season pass. If you do not have a passport, a birth certificate (everyone) and a photo ID (16 and older) is required to visit.

FRIDAY NIGHT SPECTACULAR

JUNE 6, 2025 - MITCHELL MAKOONS

Mitchell Makoons is a Roots/Rock musician from Brandon, Manitoba, who currently resides in Winnipeg. At the age of seven, Mitchell began playing the guitar to accompany his grandfather and brother as they played Metis fiddle tunes. Makoons continues to be an active member of the Manitoba Metis community and writes songs that combine traditional Ojibway music and culture with modern influences.

Makoons has toured several times across Western Canada. In 2024, he performed at Dauphin's Countryfest, Harvest Sun Music Festival, Gentlefest, and Winnipeg Fringe Festival, to name a few.

Makoons released his debut album "Lady Boots" in April of 2024. Four of the 8 tracks on the album, reached the top 10 on the Indigenous Music Countdown with "Courage" and "Changing Man" becoming his first and second No. 1's. Mitchell's music can be heard on Canadian and American radio and international play on Sirius XM. Since 2022, Makoons has been nominated for 9 Manitoba Country Music Awards and won the Emerging Artist of the Year Award in 2024.

The concert will take place at the International Music Camp in the International Peace Garden. Tickets are required if not registered as a Fiddle Workshop/Showcase participant. Tickets for the concert are $10 USD. Gate admission to the International Peace Garden is also required. If you do not have a passport, a birth certificate (everyone) and photo ID (16 and older) is required to visit.

The International Music Camp's

20TH Annual Fiddle Camp July 20-26, 2025

In conjunction with IMC's Orchestra Program, the Fiddle Camp offers a curriculum designed especially for fiddle players and fiddle enthusiasts.

Room, board, and tuition for this one week session is $675 ($630 USD before May 1). Call the International Music Camp office at (701) 838-8472 for registration information or go to our website.

FIDDLE CONTEST RULES

JUNE 7, 2025

- Each contestant must play a hoedown, a waltz, and a selection of his or her choice (not a hoedown or waltz), in that order. Small Fry contestants are only required to play a hoedown and a waltz. Novelty tunes such as "Orange Blossom Special," "Listen to the Mockingbird," and "Rocky Mountain Rag" will not be permitted. All tunes must be of dance able quality. You must use different tunes for each go-around.
- Contestants in all divisions except Small Fry will play at least two go-arounds each. Contestants will draw for their position in each go-around of the contest. Contestants advancing to the Finals will play one additional go-around (three go-arounds total.)
- Small Fry Division contestants will be required to play one go-around only. They will not advance to the Finals round. Contestants will have an opportunity to perform while finals are being tabulated on Saturday night. Certificates and a small cash prize will be awarded to each contestant in this category.
- Junior-Junior Division contestants will be required to play two go-arounds only. They will not advance to the Finals round. Prizes and trophies will be awarded in the Junior-Junior Division based upon the cumulative points of the two rounds. Junior-Junior contestants will have an opportunity to perform while finals are being tabulated on Saturday night.
- Band Division will be required to play one go-around only. The contestants can select two tunes of their choosing. Bands can consist of any number of performers and instrumentation.

- A maximum of five minutes will be allocated to each contestant for his/her performance in each contest go-around.

- Scoring by the judges will include the following point system:

Technical Ability: 0 to 100 points

Tone Quality: 0 to 100 points

Rhythm: 0 to 100 points

Intonation: 0 to 100 points

All points earned will be cumulative.

- All contestants will be allowed one or two accompanists. No accompanist will be allowed to use a bowed instrument. However, the acoustic string bass may be used if it is plucked. One standing microphone will be provided for each participant, but no contact microphones will be allowed.

- No sheet music shall be displayed in the contest area.
