

Dr. Anthony Rohr, tenor, is a versatile performer of operatic, musical theater, and contemporary styles. His recent work includes playing Cinderella's Prince in Sondheim's Into the Woods with the Badlands Opera Project, singing with the FM Symphony as the featured guest for the company's Holiday Pops concert, and performing a self-produced, one-man act titled Tin Pan Teddy written for the Badlands Chautauqua in Medora.

While performing in his home state has been a continued focus for Dr. Rohr, previous work of note includes interpreting the roles of Mr. Snow in Carousel with Opera North in Lebanon, NH; Don Jose in La Tragedie de Carmen with the Lake George Music Festival in Lake George, NY; and Che in Evita with the Seagle Festival in Schroon Lake, NY.

Dr. Rohr currently maintains a private voice studio in Fargo, ND. In addition to this instruction, he also teaches at the Rushmore Music Camp, the Badlands Opera Project's MT Camp, serves as an adjudicator for ND All-State Chorus auditions, and works as the Assistant Director of Outreach and Admissions at NDSCS in Wahpeton, ND.
