 - Late Registration: In order to register late for a learning event, you must contact the instructor of record to gain permission. Once you have received permission, the instructor of record must contact the PDE Coordinator, Hattie Alberston. An email will be sent with instructions on how to register for late credit. There is a $25.00 late registration fee for this type of registration.

- Grades:
 - All grades for Graduate Professional Development Credit are recorded on an official transcript at the University of North Dakota. You will receive an email confirmation of your learning event completion and instructions for ordering transcripts. For questions or concerns regarding the status of your grade, please contact the Office of Extended Learning at 701-777-0488 or email UND.educators@UND.edu.
- Transcript Request Information:
 - For complete instructions, go to: <https://UND.edu/academics/registrar/transcript-request.html>

INFORMATION FOR IOR:

- Roster and Grade Sheet:
 - A preliminary roster will be emailed approximately one week before the end of the learning event. This roster will provide you with a list of educators who have registered for credit. Please remind educators who have not signed up for credit to register as soon as possible.
 - A final grade sheet and roster will be emailed to you from UND.educators@UND.edu at the end of the credit registration period. Instructions for the return of the grade sheet will be included in the email.
