

Katie Alarcon Hernandez (Langemo) is a theater artist based in Minneapolis, MN. Originally from Minot, ND, she earned her degree from Minot State University with a double major in Theater Arts and Vocal Performance. As a life-long theater participant, she has held many roles both onstage and backstage including actor, stage manager, and choreographer. Katie has worked for and collaborated with organizations such as Guthrie Theater, Children's Theatre Company, Minnesota Orchestra, Minot State University Summer Theatre, Festival Theater, Minnesota Fringe Festival, EMK, and the collaborative theater duo E/D. She produces three middle school musicals each school year as the Senior Program Manager of Musicals for Project Success, a youth development non-profit that partners with Minneapolis Public Schools. A frequent choreographer for MSU Summer Theatre, some of her favorite choreography credits include Elf, Something Rotten, 9 to 5, Big Fish, Seussical, Oklahoma!, The Music Man, and Jesus Christ Superstar. She also teaches salsa at One Reason Dance Studio.